

20th Annual

Bill Brown

Youth Cross-Country Series

in Bel Air, Maryland
Oct 5, Oct 19, and Nov 2, 2008

This series consists of three introductory/development meets for boys and girls under age 14. It is named in honor of Bill Brown, 1951 Pan-American Games gold medalist, NCAA 880-yard run champion, and successful Harford County coach and physical education teacher from 1952 to 1983.

The series, in its 20th year, is conducted by the Bel Air Recreation Committee in partnership with the Renaissance All-Sports Athletic Club (RASAC). Races are held Sunday afternoons. Registration begins at 3 p.m.
